

Attention Gail Phillips...

We are not un-American.

We are not un-Alaskan.

We are FOR clean water and wild Alaska salmon.

At the Alaska Miners Association Convention in Juneau, the Vice Chair of a group funded by Northern Dynasty Mining called Alaskans who oppose Pebble Mine “un-American and un-Alaskan” (March 26 Juneau Empire).

Here is just a small sample of the organizations and individuals who oppose Pebble Mine whom she has smeared with this statement.

Nondalton Tribal Council

Olga Balluta
Nicholl Balluta
Milton Delkittie
Okzenia Delkittie
Chris Alexie
Clyde Trefon
Nick Carltikoff
Elizabeth Balluta
Earl Balluta
Nenita Wilson
Jesse Trefon
Darlene Nolan
Jack Hobson

Koliganek Native Limited
 New Koliganek Village Council
 Nunamta Aulukestai
 Nushagak-Mulchatna/Wood-Tikchik Land Trust
 The Village Tribe, Native Corporation and City of Ekwok
 SNOPAC
 Wildcatch

Federation of Fly Fishers
 Alaska Inter-Tribal Council
 Alaska Alpine Adventures
 Alaska Wilderness Recreation & Tourism Association
 Alaska Sportsman's Lodge
 Alaska's Fishing Unlimited Lodge
 Alaska Rainbow Lodge
 Angler's Alibi Alaska
 Bristol Bay Alliance
 Enchanted Lake Lodge
 Katmai Air, LLC
 Kodiak Sportsman's Lodge
 Kvichak Lodge
 Nushagak Paradise Lodge
 Rainbow King Lodge, Inc.
 Royal Wolf Lodge
 Fish Alaska Magazine
 Alaska Jig Association
 Alaska Independent Fisherman's Marketing Association
 United Fishermen of Alaska
 Shawn Dochtermann, Commercial Fisherman
 Leader Creek Fisheries

The truth is, a majority of Alaskans oppose Pebble Mine.

The truth is, the only thing un-American and un-Alaskan is the Canadian mining company that wants to blast one of the largest mines in North America right at the headwaters of Alaska's largest salmon fishery.

OPPOSE THE PEBBLE MINE

<http://renewableresourcescoalition.org>

RENEWABLE RESOURCES
 COALITION

Ad co-sponsored by Nondalton Tribal Council along with RRC